

Our Youth Vision for Canada's Future

Youth joined a national discussion to share their vision of the future of Canada

652 perspectives were shared from youth aged nine to seventeen years old.

Here's what they think the next 150 years in Canada should look like...

Youth on Citizenship

Canada's youth had different opinions of what it means to be a responsible citizen in the Next 150 years.

The two most popular answers were:

Youth on Canadian Identity

Canada's youth overwhelmingly at 91% felt that embracing diversity is

Youth on Belonging

80% of Canada's youth felt that some change (64%) or big change (16%) is needed in the Next 150 years to increase the sense of belonging in the community they live. 21% of youth thought no change is needed.

Youth on Learning from Our Past

In the Next 150 years, Canada's youth are interested in learning about the history of Canada primarily as a way to help create

Youth on Sustainability

96% of Canada's youth feel that change is needed to ensure a sustainable environment for future generations with 67%

is needed over the Next 150 years.

Youth on Canada's Leadership

Canada's youth envision Canada as a leader in the world in the Next 150 years, especially in the area of

The Next 150 Discussions were proudly hosted on WorldVuze

[www.worldvuze.com]

Thank You to Our Partners and Supporters

This project has been made possible in part by Canadian Heritage.